What will I learn on this course?

A course for beginners through to experienced painters, using photographs, sketches and still life as starting points to work from. Practical help is given in:

- Colour mixing, application and techniques using watercolour paint, materials and equipment.
- Understanding and appreciation of paintings from different artists around the world

By the end of the course, I will be able to:

- Paint and draw with more confidence.
- Develop an understanding of different mediums and techniques.
- Develop own compositions.
- Appreciate a wider range of artists' work.
