What will I learn on this course?

Bury offers a wide range of employment opportunities within the hospitality, catering, and food industries. These include roles in cafés and bars in the town centre, as well as positions in school kitchens and the food production sector.

This qualification is a regulated and nationally recognised award for individuals who are working in, or planning to work in, the food industry. Assessment is carried out through a multiple-choice exam at the end of the course.

By the end of the course, I will be able to:

- Understand the effects of different food poisoning bacteria on the body.
- Prevent food contamination and understand the importance of cleaning & disinfection.
- Understand the importance of personal hygiene in the food industry.
- Understand the importance of pest control within the cooking environment.
- Understand allergens and their effect on the body.

Learners are expected to arrive promptly to ensure they do not miss any part of the session.

What syllabus will I follow?

Qualsafe Level 2 Award in Food Safety in Catering.
